

Transportation

We know that getting your group from Point A to Point B without a hitch is key to your meeting or event's success. In Boulder, a compact downtown, reliable transportation providers and a great public transportation system help get the job done.

In fact, if you're hosting a meeting or event in downtown Boulder, your transportation needs may be minimal — it's all walkable and worth exploring by foot. Bike shop rentals and our public rent-by-the-hour B-Cycle stations also make it easy for attendees to get around as the locals do. (Boulder is ranked third in Bicycle Magazine's America's Best Bike Cities.)

For the times when you do need a bit of help with transportation, we have a trusted stable of providers knowledgeable about the ins and outs of navigating Boulder's roadways and parking.

We're here to help with all the logistics and can match you with all the transportation resources you need. Contact us at 303.442.2911 or GroupSales@BoulderCOVB.com for free assistance.
