The arts and cultural scene here is world class. The Dallas Museum of Art, Nasher Sculpture Center, Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth, Amon Carter and Kimbell are part of a collection of museums equal to any in the world. Live performances of symphonies, theater, concerts, opera and more can be found on the stages of the Morton Meyerson Symphony Center, Bass Performance Hall, Irving Arts Center, Dee and Charles Wyly Theater, Margot and Bill Winspear Opera House and other landmark performance venues.

If shopping is your bag, there's lots to do. Exclusive emporiums and designer district outlets are interwoven with multitudes of malls, local favorites for every shade of Texana and a full spectrum of specialty shops. You'll never do it all in one day, or even in one weekend. Most malls offer group programs for special savings and surprises.

An active day can leave a visitor hungry, and though out-of-towners rave about our delicious Tex-Mex, Irving and the rest of the Metroplex boast thousands of restaurants – from national names to local favorites – to tempt the taste buds. Many restaurants are group-friendly, offering special menus, private rooms and more. A number also feature catering, allowing you to bring their taste of something special to many of the area's off-site venues for private events.
