Cover Art: King of zydeco with Mask and coke ©2008 Francis X Pavy · Pavy.com

A lifelong resident of Louisiana, Francis X Pavy was born in Lafayette on March 2, 1954. As a child, Francis studied art under the direction of Elemore Morgan Jr. In college he studied music, ceramics, animation, painting, printmaking and sculpture, graduating in 1976 with a fine arts degree in sculpture. In 1977 Pavy started working in a glass shop, making leaded and beveled glass windows. In 1982 he opened his own glass studio. He adopted painting as his primary medium in 1985, but still works in a variety of media. Pavy's works vibrate with life, color and musical rhythm. The abstract dimension in his works is always profoundly grounded in southern motifs and culture. Pavy works in many media including paintings, prints, constructions and sculpture.
