Shreveport-Bossier MARDI GRAS HISTORY

Shreveport-Bossier throws the best family-friendly Mardi Gras! The carnival celebration came to northwest Louisiana in 1989 when the Krewe of Gemini was founded. The Krewe of Centaur soon followed in 1991. Today, Shreveport-Bossier is home to 15 krewes, each with its own personality. Mardi Gras float-riders toss more than eight million beads each year to seas of people waving their arms and shouting, "Throw me something, Mister!" Up to 400,000 parade-goers attend the festivities each year. From grand bals to authentic Cajun food and dazzling parades, there's a way for everyone to celebrate Mardi Gras in Shreveport-Bossier!

MARDI GRAS

✓ PLAN AHEAD

FOLLOW THESE TIPS TO HELP ENSURE AN ENJOYABLE PARADE EXPERIENCE AND REMEMBER TO ALWAYS CELEBRATE SAFELY AND RESPONSIBLY.

KREWE OF CENTARUR & KREWE OF GEMINI PARADES

- Arrive at 7 a.m. to reserve a spot on Clyde Fant Parkway.
- Alcoholic beverages are allowed, but no glass containers are allowed. Alcohol is not allowed in the designated family-friendly zone on Clyde Fant Parkway.
- Port-a-potties will be available for public use along the parade route.
- On the parade days, all roads on the parade route close at 3:30 p.m.
- Parking is free in downtown Shreveport after 5 p.m. on Fridays and all day on weekends.
- Clyde Fant Parkway between East Preston Avenue and Milam Street is closed at 7 p.m. the evenings prior to the parades. The road re-opens at 7 a.m. the day of the parades.

MARDI GRAS PARADES

- Premium parade-watching spots will fill up quickly. Plan ahead and arrive 2-14 hours early for the best spot on the parade route.
- Dress appropriately, as temperatures can change quickly during parade season.
- Bring lawn chairs and/or blankets to sit on while waiting for the parade.
- Bring empty sacks for beads and throws.
- Bring hand wipes and sanitizer.
- Bring snacks and drinks to enjoy throughout the day.

GET Your KING CAKES HERE!

KING CAKE HISTORY

It's not Mardi Gras without King Cake! This delicious tradition dates back to the 12th century in France to honor the Three Kings who visited Jesus. In 1870, the tradition was brought to New Orleans. It tastes like a hybrid of coffee cake and French pastry and is topped with icing and purple, green and gold sprinkles. Look out for the plastic baby Jesus placed inside. The tradition is whoever finds it is king for the day and has to buy the next King Cake!

POUR ME

From vintage New Orleans inspired cocktails to drive-thru daiquiris and local brewed craft beer, Shreveport-Bossier offers many unique Louisiana libations. Please celebrate responsibly and obey open-container laws.

DRIVE-THRU DAIQUIRIS

A constant source of amusement to visitors, Louisiana's famous drive-thru daiquiri stands are located throughout Shreveport-Bossier. These shops sell potent slushy-like cocktails with names like "The Cajun Curse" (available at Cajun Daiquiris, 3306 Youree Dr., Shreveport) and "Call a Cab" (available at Hollywood Daiquiri, 4144 Hollywood Ave., Shreveport) at drive-thru windows.

SHARK ATTACK DAIQUIRI AT ALKY THERAPY

318-716-1322 | 4312 Greenwood Rd., Shreveport

Drinks come topped with fresh fruit, candy, flavored tapioca pearls, chocolate-covered strawberries and more. Taste their version of the famous Shark Attack, made with blue Hawaiian rum and decorated with grenadine and shark candy.
